DESCRIPTION Please describe the practice you have developed.
The meeting of gardeners takes place monthly and brings together the inhabitants of the social housings that have a plot in the garden. It often takes place on Thursday morning. It is also sometimes scheduled on Saturday morning to allow people who work to attend. It takes place either at the premises of the social landlord, or in at the permanence office/room of the tenants' Association. It is run by the association Amieu. We will move towards a co - animation with volunteers, and reach forward meetings run by the inhabitants themselves. The association Amieu currently runs the meeting. Then for awhile it will share this leading with volunteers, who in the future will run the meeting on their own. The Amieu association writes the minutes of the meeting and distributes sends them by email (to the lessor and gardeners who have computers) or distributes them in mailbox for the other gardeners mailboxes (with the help from the social landlord).
AIMS AND OUTCOMES Which are the main purposes tackled in a community garden with this tool? Which concrete results have been observed at short and long term?
AIMS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To review the problems and questions about the plots and the garden as a whole: management, water, landscaping, and connection to the lessor (requests ...). - To plan the garden collective tasks (cleaning, planting, pruning olive trees). - To review the projects related to the gardens (collective garden and pedagogical garden): hosting of outside groups, facilities, participation in events outside the garden (festival "caress the garden" ...). - Launch events in the gardens: collective meals cooked in the gardens, festivals... - To Invite some partners: for example the Urban Policy that funds our project, or a partner who organizes an event around the garden and then comes to speak in our meeting... - Results: The participation rates vary, we must maintain make a constant effort to live keep this time of gathering alive and fruitful, but we are at the heart of the project.
WHAT MAKES IT A GOOD PRACTICE OR TOOL? Identify which elements make this action a good practice, for ex. Innovation, coherence, link with other projects or people, favours social mixing, simplify work, earn time or money, etc.

- This is a good tool because it connects people, and projects gardens gardens projects with other local projects (neighborhood, city, ...).
- This tool is a meeting point in time and space, it allows to make alive a collective (and a collective mind), promotes the collective spirit of the group, difficult to maintain without a frame.
- This tool maintains a good triangulation: inhabitant gardeners, social landlord, association supporting the project. It should help to give gives a voice to all of them.
- It is the (only) starting point for collective action.

STEP BY STEP Please, describe how to put in practice, guiding with clear instruction and materials needed someone that would like to experiment your tool in a local community garden around Europe

1. A room, light, heating in winter, a computer, a printer;
2. Write an invitation, and a coherent agenda; at least three partners;
3. A telephone reminder to people by telephone call - two to three days before the meeting date;
4. The animation leading/leadership /coordination of this meeting, taking notes;
5. Giving a voice to everyone;
6. Write the minutes of that meeting;
7. Disseminate the report: email sending to social landlord, to some partners (Urban Policy...) and residents gardeners (re- including distribution in mailboxes for those who do not have an internet connection).

COMPETENCES Which are the previous knowledge and skills required to put in practice this tool?

Skills for:

- Animation: Group leadership: management of speech, speech adapted to the audience...
- Attentive Listening to people
- Negotiation (social landlord, meeting participants)
- Writting Writing and speaking
- - Taking notes and synthesizing data expressed

EVALUATION How do you normally evaluate the outcomes of this tool?

- number of people present: a lower diminution of the number of people leads to reflection and further adjustments.
- quality of interaction between participants
